HENRICUS HISTORICAL PARK WILL PRESENT COLONIAL CRAFTS & TRADES APRIL 24-25

CHESTERFIELD COUNTY, VA -- On Saturday, April 24 and Sunday, April 25, 10 a.m. - 5 p.m., Henricus Historical Park will present Colonial Crafts & Trades.

Sir Thomas Dale brought tradesmen, soldiers, and laborers to Virginia in 1611. This event demonstrates the English working class with tradesmen, including carpenters, tailors, and blacksmiths recreating the work of 1611-1622 Virginia.

Soldiers and women artisans will demonstrate their trades while children play colonial games and participate in tasks they might have done in the community.

Visitors may be asked to assist demonstrators with various trades! Daily admission fee is $7 for adults and $5 for children. Some discounts apply.

Henricus Historical Park is located at 251 Henricus Park Road, Chester, VA. 23836. For more information on Colonial Crafts & Trades or Henricus Historical Park, call (804) 748-1613 or visit www.henricus.org
