

Last Fight of the Confederate Navy: Battle of Trent's Reach, 1865
Schedule of Events
Saturday, January 21, 2012
9:30 a.m.-5 p.m.

- 9:30 a.m. Wreath-laying ceremony with bagpipes in memory of the fallen featuring remarks by Christy S. Coleman, president of the American Civil War Center at Historic Tredegar (Bluff overlooking James River)
- 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Civil War Artifacts of Dutch Gap Canal (Education Center)
- 10 a.m.- 4 p.m. Civil War Interpretation (Nature Trail)
- Stop #1 – Civilian refugees behind Federal lines
 - Stop #2 – Federal artillery piece and crew
 - Stop #3 – Federal observers and sharpshooters
 - Stop #4 – Confederate picket post
- 11:30 a.m. Civil War cannon firing demonstration (Nature Trail)
- 12 p.m. Lecture on the Battle of Trent's Reach (Education Center)
Taft Kiser, archeologist at Cultural Resources, Inc.
- 12:30 p.m. Period image and photography analysis by Dr. Francis DuCoin (Education Center)
- 1 p.m. Nature & History Covered Pontoon Boat Tour (Henricus Boat Dock)
Pre-registration is strongly suggested: (804) 318-8728
- 2 p.m. Nature & History Covered Pontoon Boat Tour (Henricus Boat Dock)
Pre-registration is strongly suggested: (804) 318-8728
- 2:30 p.m. Civil War cannon firing demonstration (Nature Trail)
- 3 p.m. Lecture on the Battle of Trent's Reach (Education Center)
Taft Kiser, archeologist at Cultural Resources, Inc.
- 3 p.m. Nature & History Covered Pontoon Boat Tour (Henricus Boat Dock)
Pre-registration is strongly suggested: (804) 318-8728
- 4 p.m. Musket salute, bagpipes and moment of silence
(Trent's Reach actual battle location near new footbridge)

Event will take place rain or shine.